HILL AND MORAN HIT WELL

Indians Jump on Jolliff in Opening Fray and Get Safe Lead, While Fagan Weakens in Second Frame

Indian Machine Goes Well.

The Indian machine never went better in both the field and at bat. Sensational stops were made by Baker and Pay, and all three outfielders were grabbing most everything in their territory. At bat the Indians also shone, making a total of nineteen hits.

The Indians had two former Richmond hurlers opposing them, and they jumped on them when hits meant runs. Jolliff, the opposing hurler in the first contest, was touched for a total of nine hits, but he kept them scattered enough to win mest games, but he lost because his cohorts could not find Bender for the necessary tallies.

The Indians jumped on Jolliff in the first round and had the game won in a twinkle. After two men had perished Jim Poole cracked out a single, stole second and scored when Gooch singled. Gooch proceeded to piffer the midway station and crossed the home plate when Gus Hill hit for a safety. Hill tried to follow Poole's and Gooch's lead by stealing second but was nabbed.

Score Only Run in Second.

The Newport News boys scored their first and only tally in the second frame. Allen led off with a single and stole second. Charlie Strain smacked a two bagger to right field that was misjudged by Gooch.

Upon recovering the ball Gooch thew home too late to get Allen. Abbott made a whip per to third base to get Strain but the ball went over Baker's head. Gus Hill ably backed the play and shot the ball home and got Strain at the plate by a yard.

Bender's boys clinched the game by scoring again in the third frame.

Bender's boys clinched the game by scoring again in the third frame. Brown was given a free pass and advanced to second on Poole's safety. Poole went to sleep and was caught off the first station by Jolliff's quick peg to Brannigan. Brown took third on the play and came home when Strain threw Gooch out.

Richmond started to work and put the second game on ice in the second inning.

the second game on ice in the second inning.

Newport News scored in the fourth frame, due to the assistance of Brown. Brannigan led off by hitting an easy one to the Indian third baseman, and though Brown had a plenty time to make an easy out at first he threw wild and the Shipbuilder was safe. Tydeman fanned and Henges was given a base. The latter was out at second on Allen's fielder's choice. Brannigan going to third. Brannigan tallied on Crossley's squeeze. Whituraft ended the inning by fanning.

Gooch Brings in Tally.

The visitors scored again in the eighth frame. Harris received a free ticket to first, advanced on Brannigan's out after Fagan had popped up and scored when Tydeman caromed the ball up against the signs in left field.

Gooch counted for another Indian theid.

Gooch counted for another Indian run in the sixth inning. He was given a walk, and advanced to second on Hill's sacrifice and scored on Moran's hit to left field. Hill was responsible for the Indians' sixth run when he bounced the globule into right field for a double in the eighth frame after Gooch had perished. Hill played away off second base and raced home when Fagan uncorked a wild throw.

Moran followed with a safety, but was caught pilfering second base. Pay walked, stole second and advanced to third on Walsh's bingle. Walsh dashed for second and Fay was lured off third by a fake throw to second, which was intercepted by Fagan. Pay was run down and downed by Henges.

Hill and Moran Star.

for him.

Again in the seventh inning he would have been responsible for a tally, but he cut third base when he reached home on Brown's hit, and Umpire Cross-called him out. However, the diminutive shoptstop did well in the field, and accepted many hard chances. In the seventh inning he ran all the way to the left field foul line and grabbed Crossley's fly.

By taking the double-pronged affair yesterday afternoon Richmond increased the lead over Norfolk to four games.

OUT TO DEFEAT PITT

University of West Virginia Will Have Strong Team to Go Against Panthers October 11.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] MORGANTOWN, August 30.—If W ISpecial to The Times-Dispatch.! MORGANTOWN, August 30.—If West Virginia cannot accomplish what some thirty gridiron teams have failed to do in the past four years, by putting a victory on the University of Pittsburgh, at Pittsburgh, October 11, it will not be because there is not an abundance of seasoned material, and in fact, it will be useless for the Mountaineers to play the Panthers in the future with any hopes of triumph. While Pitt is at her weakest through having graduated such stars as McLaren, Sutherland Sies, Easterday and others, the Mountaineers will have a long string of stars available.

The twenty-seven men available for the varsity here, include Captain Rodgers, Hite, King, Lentz, Lewis, McCue, Bailey, Harrick, Ice, Hager, Webster, Brooks, Mills, and Kay, who have won their letters in former years and Emsweller, Martin, Hill, Dawson, Kiger, Mullan, Setron, Weimer, Knight, Dorsey, Davis, Parker and Bell all of whom have either been substitutes in the 1917 team here or who helped to form the 1918 eleven, which was fully developed, but which did not get to play a single contest because of the flu epidemic.
